About Online Permissions, Multi-Platform Support & Referencing Resources

This is a year of transition and trying new things for all of us. As we cautiously shift back towards in-person worship, most of us will likely continue with some form of online worship, whether that be offering an online service simultaneously, posting the recordings of our in-person services online or some other hybrid innovation.

To support these various kinds of multi-platform worship, we are continuing our practice of researching material that is permissioned for online use. We will identify those online permissioned pieces with an asterisk and add “permission notes” to document and clarify the source of that permission. The use of the single asterisk indicates that that piece is permissioned for use in online service, including those recorded pieces posted on your social media outlets and webpages. If permission is more limited than that we will explicitly make a note about it.

(Note: last year we used a one asterisk and two asterisks system to differentiate between use in unrecorded online services and recorded/posted services. Our experience is that this distinction is no longer relevant because virtually all writers are permissioning for both live and recorded/posted material. Thus our switch to only one asterisk. If we find that someone only allows non-recorded/posted permissions, we will explicitly note that in the permission comments.)

A Reminder About Partial Texts and “Pointing not Publishing”: To honor legal and relational standards, we do not include the full pieces of authors’ works unless we’ve received explicit permission to do so. We want all subscribers to clearly understand that our worship packets are research packets not publications, which means we focus on “pointing” to where you can find fair use and publicly available pieces, rather than on “publishing” original writings and full resources. Our main service is theme-based curation and research, done in the service of saving professional’s time.

A Note About Author Titles: Many of the authors we refer to are ministers. Some ministers prefer to be credited with their title “Rev.,” others don’t, and still others are fine either way. Our practice is to follow whatever practice was used in the source material we reference.

...This chalice shines a light on our shared past, signaling our intention to listen deeply, reflect wisely,
and move boldly toward our highest ideals.

Be About the Work ***

Andrea Hawkins-Kamper

Full piece found at <https://www.uua.org/worship/words/closing/be-about-work>

Permission Source

May we be the ones to make it as it should be..

This is the work we are called to do, and this is the call we answer now...

To be a people of intention and a people of conscience.

Intentions and Trust

Amy Loyd

Full piece found at <https://lifeacousticandamplified.wordpress.com/2013/04/11/intentions/>

Today I want to greet joy

Without a trace of suspicion

I want to open my eyes to the light

Without a blink of dread...

We Are Called?

Rev. Natalie Fenimore

Full piece found in Voices from the Margins, a UUA meditation manual & Soul Matters "Common Shelf" Book

Not permissioned for online use

We are all called...

What will we choose? How will we answer?

Meditations, Prayers & Blessings

Make Me a Channel (Instrument) of Thy Peace, St. Francis of Assisi ***

Pause after each of the phrases of the opening section; before reading invite listeners to use that pause to reflect how they can intentionally let in each hope more deeply into their lives.

Found at <https://www.uua.org/worship/words/prayer/peace-prayer>

My High Resolve, Howard Thurman

To turn into a more effective meditation, we recommend you change the singular pronouns to plural.

“Keep fresh before me the moments of my high resolve. Despite the dullness and barrenness of the days that pass, if I search with due diligence, I can always find a deposit left by some former radiance. But I had forgotten. At the time it was full-orbed, glorious, and resplendent. I was sure that I would never forget. I had forgotten how easy it is to forget. There was no intent to betray what seemed so sure at the time. My response was whole, clean, authentic. But little by little, there crept into my life the dust and grit of the journey. Details, lower-level demands, all kinds of cross currents -- nothing momentous, nothing overwhelming, nothing flagrant -- just wear and tear. If there had been some direct challenge -- a clear-cut issue -- I would have fought it to the end, and beyond. In the quietness of this place, surrounded by the all-pervading Presence of God, my heart whispers: Keep fresh before me the moments of my High Resolve, that in fair weather or in foul, in good times or in tempests, in the days when the darkness and the foe are nameless or familiar, I may not forget that to which my life is committed.”

Even This Is Enough, Rev. Vanessa Southern ***

On intentionally putting aside all the expectations and letting ourselves rest.

Full prayer at <https://www.uua.org/worship/words/prayer/even-enough>
Permission Source

The world won't stop spinning on her axis if you don't rise to all occasions today.
Love won't cease to flow in your direction, your heart won't stop beating...
Rest, if you must, then, like the swimmer lying on her back who floats...

In Quietness, Maryell Clearly

Found in Rejoice Together (pg.50), a UUA worship resource & Soul Matters “Common Shelf” Book

“Knowing that we do not always live up to our best expectations of ourselves, let us in quietness seek the good within...”

A Prayer of Good Intention, author unknown

Dear Lord, So far I've done all right. I haven't gossiped, haven't lost my temper, haven't been greedy, grumpy, nasty, selfish, or overindulgent. I'm really glad about that.
But in a few minutes, God, I'm going to get out of bed.
And from then on, I'm going to need a lot more help.

Music

Soul Matters Music Resources

In addition to the suggestions below, be sure to tap into our other sources of support for music leaders:

- 1. Monthly online musicians' brainstorming group: We meet on the first Tuesday of each month at 6pm eastern time. To join the call use this Zoom link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/5857099120>. No pre-registration necessary. Just come as you are able.
- 2. Soul Matters Music Support Facebook Page: This support page is for on-going sharing among Soul Matters musicians. Click here to go to the Facebook page.
- 4. NEW! An additional Resource Guide containing suggestions for public domain sources, free music sources, sheet music purchase sites, etc. This is a living doc and will be updated monthly. Any additional helpful suggestions/resources can be submitted to: Soul Matters Music
- 5. Recordings of all of our monthly music brainstorming calls are available here.
- 6. Soul Matters Music Playlists: We create two different playlists each month: one in Spotify and another in YouTube. This is intended to provide inspiration for our small group participants but might be useful to musicians. Click here for links to the Spotify playlists for each month. Click here to check out the YouTube playlists.
- 7. AUUMM (Association for UU Musicians Ministries) Online Database: The wonderful leadership of the AUUMM have added our monthly themes to the AUUMM music database. It's a great way to get music suggestions from UUs all around the country. Access the AUUMM Music Database here.

Pay attention to the hyperlinks we include within titles and authors' names; these hyperlinks provide the source material and direction for you to hunt down permissions on your own.

On Intentionally Directing & Rerouting Your Life

Quote - Annie Lamott

Oh my God, what if you wake up some day and you never got your memoir or novel written; or you didn't go swimming in warm pools and oceans all those years because your thighs were jiggly and you had a nice big comfortable tummy; or you were just so strung out on perfectionism and people-pleasing that you forgot to have a big juicy creative life, of imagination and radical silliness and staring off into space like when you were a kid? It's going to break your heart. Don't let this happen. Repent just means to change direction — and NOT to be said by someone who is wagging their forefinger at you. Repentance is a blessing. Pick a new direction and aim for that. Shoot the moon.

Quote - Ralph Waldo Emerson

A person will worship something, have no doubt about that. We may think our tribute is paid in secret in the dark recesses of our hearts, but it will out. That which dominates our imaginations and our thoughts will determine our lives, and our character. Therefore, it behooves us to be careful what we worship, for what we are worshipping we are becoming.

Quote - Deepak Chopra

Conscious change is brought about by the two qualities inherent in consciousness – intention and attention... Whatever you put your attention on will grow stronger in your life. Whatever you take your attention away from will wither, disintegrate and disappear.

Book - The Power of Habit, Charles Duhigg

How to intentionally change your habits and take back your life.

Quote - Lao Tzu

At the center of your being, you have the answer; you know who you are, and you know what you want.

Quote - Leslie Jamison

Empathy isn't just something that happens to us—a meteor shower of synapses firing across the brain—it's also a choice we make: to pay attention, to extend ourselves. It's made of exertion, that dowdier cousin of impulse. Sometimes we care for another because we know we should or because it's asked for, but this doesn't make our caring hollow. The act of choosing simply means we've committed ourselves to a set of behaviors greater than the sum of our individual inclinations. This confession of effort chafes against the notion that empathy should always rise unbidden, that genuine means the same thing as unwilling, that intentionality is the enemy of love. But I believe in intention and I believe in work. I believe in waking up in the middle of the night and packing our bags and leaving our worse selves for our better ones.

On Intentionally Not Following the Crowd

Quote - Richie Norton

Intentional living is the art of making our own choices before others' choices make us.

Quote - Rick Warren

Those who follow the crowd usually get lost in it.

Quote - Ann Voskamp

Any dead fish can go with the flow — you have to be intentionally alive to swim against the current.

Quote - Marion Milner, quoted in A Life of One's Own

I had at least begun to guess that my greatest need might be to let go and be free from the drive after achievement — if only I dared. I had also guessed that perhaps when I had let these go, then I might be free to become aware of some other purpose that was more fundamental, not self-imposed private ambitions but something which grew out of the essence of one's own nature. People said: 'Oh, be yourself at all costs.' But I had found that it was not so easy to know just what one's self was. It was far easier to want what other people seemed to want and then imagine that the choice was one's own... It was only when I was actively passive, and content to wait and watch, that I really knew what I wanted.

Quote - Dawna Markova

When you have the courage to shape your life from the essence of who you are, you ignite, becoming truly alive. This requires letting go of everything that is inauthentic. But how can you even know your truth unless you slow down, in your own quiet company? When the inner walls to your soul are graffitied with advertisements, commercials, and the opinions of everyone who has every known and labeled you, turning inwards requires nothing less than a major clean-up.

On Intention and Courage

Quote - Abraham Maslow

In any given moment we have two options, to step forward in growth or to step back into safety.

Poem - Intentions and Trust, Amy Loyd

Full poem at <https://lifeacousticandamplified.wordpress.com/2013/04/11/intentions/>

Today I want to greet joy
Without a trace of suspicion
I want to open my eyes to the light
Without a blink of dread...
That's my intention
It's what I want

I will not die an unlived life...
I choose to inhabit my days,
to allow my living to open me...

On Goals vs. Intentions

Article - The Heart's Intention, Phillip Moffitt

<https://dharmawisdom.org/the-hearts-intention/>

Quote - Phillip Moffitt

With goals, the future is always the focus: Are you going to reach the goal? Will you be happy when you do? What's next? Setting intention, at least according to Buddhist teachings, is quite different than goal making. It is not oriented toward a future outcome. Instead, it is a path or practice that is focused on how you are "being" in the present moment. Your attention is on the ever-present "now" in the constantly changing flow of life. You set your intentions based on understanding what matters most to you and make a commitment to align your worldly actions with your inner values... Goals help you make your place in the world and be an effective person. But being grounded in intention is what provides integrity and unity in your life... What would it be like if you didn't measure the success of your life just by what you get and don't get, but gave equal or greater priority to how aligned you are with your deepest values?

Quote - Katie Covey, Soul Matters Dir. of RE Resources

Here's what I discovered. Intention is different from setting goals or resolutions in that it "pulls us into" who we truly are. Goals and resolutions "push us out" into future possibilities. To set intentions, we must listen to our inner voice which tells us who we truly are.

Quote - Lao Tzu

At the center of your being, you have the answer; you know who you are, and you know what you want.

On Good Intentions

Article - Intent vs. Impact: Why Your Intentions Don't Really Matter, Jamie Utt

<https://everydayfeminism.com/2013/07/intentions-dont-really-matter/>

Article - Racial Bias, Even When We Have Good Intentions

"...Ugly pockets of conscious bigotry remain in this country, but most discrimination is more insidious. The urge to find and call out the bigot is powerful and doing so is satisfying. But it is also a way to let ourselves off the hook. Rather than point fingers outward, we should look inward — and examine how, despite best intentions, we discriminate in ways big and small."

Article - Brené Brown Top Tip: Assume Others Are Doing The Best They Can

<https://www.thegrowthfaculty.com/blog/BrenBrowntoptipassumeothersaredoingthebesttheycan>

"It turns out that we assume the worst about people's intentions when they're not respectful of our boundaries. It's easy to believe that they are trying to disappoint us on purpose..."

Article - "But I didn't mean it!" Why it's so hard to prioritize impacts over intents

<https://blogs.scientificamerican.com/psysociety/e2809cbut-i-didne28099t-mean-ite2809d-why-ite28099s-so-hard-to-prioritize-impacts-over-intents/>

"I want to be very clear that I agree with the importance of emphasizing impact over intent. I also recognize the fact that no one is claiming this process of learning to focus on impact (vs. intent) is supposed to be easy. I have never heard anyone allege that this process is supposed to come naturally to people. However, there's a fundamental issue in this "intent vs. impact" distinction. Pitting intent versus impact presumes that the two are orthogonal -- when, in fact, they very much are not..."

On Intentionally Simplifying Our Lives

How To Simplify Your Life

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7IECIsRif10&t=159s>

On the need to intentionally create a quieter life

Quote - Joshua Becker

Own less stuff. Enjoy more freedom. It really is that simple.

Quote - Wendell Berry

"A change of heart or of values without a practice is only another pointless luxury of a passively consumptive way of life."

On Intentionally Making Mistakes

Quote - My New Year Wish, Neil Gaiman

From <http://journal.neilgaiman.com/2011/12/my-new-year-wish.html>

I hope that in this year to come, you make mistakes. Because if you are making mistakes, then you are making new things, trying new things, learning, living, pushing yourself, changing yourself, changing your world. You're doing things you've never done before, and more importantly, you're Doing Something. So that's my wish for you, and all of us, and my wish for myself. Make New Mistakes. Make glorious, amazing mistakes. Make mistakes nobody's ever made before. Don't freeze, don't stop, don't worry that it isn't good enough, or it isn't perfect, whatever it is: art, or love, or work or family or life. Whatever it is you're scared of doing, Do it. Make your mistakes, next year and forever.

On Intention and Church

Quote - S. Kelley Harrell

Sacred space” is another way of saying “with intention.”

Quote - Rev. A. Powell Davies, Unitarian Minister

Let me tell you why I come to church. I come to church—and would whether I was a preacher or not—because I fall below my own standards and need to be constantly brought back to them. I am afraid of becoming selfish and indulgent, and my church—my church of the free spirit—brings me back to what I want to be. I could easily despair; doubt and dismay could overwhelm me. My church renews my courage and my hope. It is not enough that I should think about the world and its problems at the level of a newspaper report or magazine discussion. It could too soon become too low a level. I must have my conscience sharpened—sharpened until it goads me to the most thorough and responsible thinking of which I am capable. I must feel again the love I owe to others. I must not only hear about it but feel it. In church, I do. I am brought toward my best, in every way toward my best.

if none of us has changed since the day we came in here—we have failed...
The purpose of this community...
is to help its people grow...
So may you go forth from here this morning not who you were,
but who you could be.

Quote - Kurt Vonnegut

“In the beginning, God created the earth, and he looked upon it in His cosmic loneliness. And God said, "Let Us make living creatures out of mud, so the mud can see what We have done." And God created every living creature that now moveth, and one was man. Mud as man alone could speak. God leaned close to mud as man sat up, looked around, and spoke. Man blinked. "What is the purpose of all this?" he asked politely. "Everything must have a purpose?" asked God. "Certainly," said man. "Then I leave it to you to think of one for all this," said God. And He went away.”

Quote - Homebrewed Christianity

We prepare the children before they go in [to Children's church] with the expectations as to what it means to enter that space: 'Are you ready to be with God?' They take their shoes off, and they look you in the eye, and if they say 'No.' then they can wiggle out in the hall until they're ready, and when they say 'Yes' they're expected to take a seat and listen and participate. ...Oh, I would love to start church that way. ...we haven't really trained people on how do you help people prepare to be in a worshipful state of mind. There is more attention to that in a yoga session than there is in worship. People will come and be present, and do some breathing, and prepare themselves to be in their bodies and fully present to what's happening in yoga more than they would in a worship service. In my opinion, in the many thousands of worship services I have attended in my life, very few start with 'setting an intention.'

The most valuable land in the world is the graveyard. In the graveyard are buried all of the unwritten novels, never-launched businesses, unreconciled relationships, and all of the other things that people thought, 'I'll get around to that tomorrow.' One day, however, their tomorrows ran out."

That day I went back to my office and I wrote down two words in my notebook and on the wall of my office that have been my primary operating ethic for the last several years: Die Empty. I want to know that if I lay my head down tonight and don't wake up tomorrow, I have emptied myself of whatever creativity is lingering inside.... This doesn't happen by accident; it takes intentional and sustained effort...

Find Additional Resources In Our Specialty Worship Packets

In addition to our "regular" monthly themed packets, we make specialty packets on a number of special Sundays and observances. You can check out all of those specialty packets on our website at:

<https://www.soulmatterssharingcircle.com/special-worship-packets.html> . For this month, you might want to check out the following specialty packet:

Honoring Martin Luther King Jr.

We have assembled a resource packet that includes inspiration and source material from the work of Dr. King. The vast majority of the over 35 pages of material includes over 80 quotes from Dr. King, as well as many curated selections from his speeches and sermons. It also includes a variety of articles focused on his work and vision, liturgy and many sermon seeds. You can purchase this packet on our Special Worship Packets page on our website: <https://www.soulmatterssharingcircle.com/special-worship-packets.html>

Recommended Sermons

Notes about 2021-22 sermon recommendations:

- We mostly list written scripts: In order not to undermine UU preachers who depend on live and online guest preaching income for their livelihood, we mainly focus on sharing sermon texts (and sometimes audio clips), but not videos.
- Permissions Secured: All of the sermons below have received permission for your online use. Unless otherwise noted, they can be used for both live streaming and recorded services that are posted on YouTube or a podcast. However, to be extra cautious and in good relationship, we ask that you reach out to the minister to let them know you are planning to use their sermon, also asking if they have any particular requests or guidance for how to do that.
- An Important Note About Editing: If you want to make changes to the sermon for brevity or contextualization, you need to reach out to the preachers directly for such editing permission. Contact information of each of the referenced preachers is at the end of the Sermon section.

Closing Words

Each Day, from Always We Begin Again

John MCQuiston II

Full piece at <http://www.monasteriesoftheheart.org/my-first-post>

At the beginning of each day, after we open our eyes to receive the light of that day,
As we listen to the voices and sounds that surround us,
We must resolve to treat each hour as the rarest of gifts...
Every day carries the potential to bring the experience of heaven;
Have the courage to expect good from it...
